Description

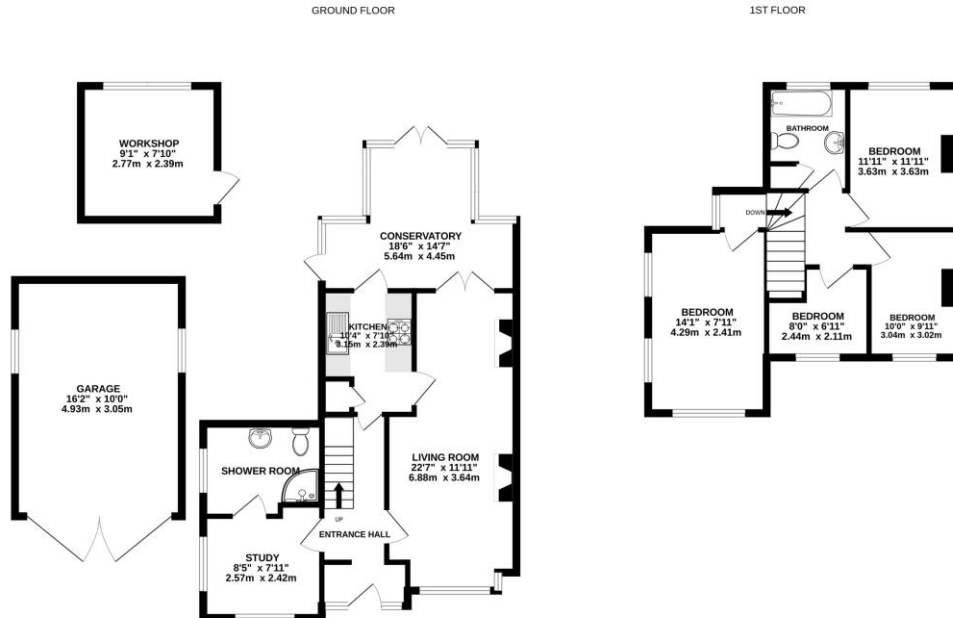

An impressive four bedroom detached family home, built in the 1930s, offering spacious/versatile living throughout whilst being situated on a private lane just a short distance from Farnham Park. The ground floor comprises a substantial lounge/dining room, study, shower room/utility, re-fitted kitchen and large orangery which provides access to the rear garden, which makes this an ideal place for those who like to entertain. The upstairs boasts four bedrooms, three of which are generous doubles and a refitted family bathroom suite.

Outside

Externally the property has ample parking on the drive as well as a carport, garage/workshop. There is side access leading through to the rear garden which features mature shrubs and plants offering a good degree of privacy. There are far reaching views to be enjoyed with a private patio seating area ideal for alfresco dining.
