Description

Offered to the market in a block of just five other flats, this two bedroom first floor apartment provides well-presented accommodation throughout.

The property comprises a spacious living/dining room with plenty of room for both a sofa and dining table. A modern kitchen is also provided, along with two superb double bedrooms, one of which boasts an en suite, in addition to a modern family bathroom.
The property is in immaculate condition throughout, and viewings are highly recommended.

Outside

The property is located in the ever-popular and well-maintained Wellesley Development.
It is ideally positioned, with Aldershot train station offering a direct route into London, as well as being a short drive from both the A331 and A3.
The property further benefits from two allocated parking spaces.
