Description

Offered to the market with no onward chain, this spacious family home is set on the popular Jubilee Road in Aldershot. Carefully extended, the property now provides a generous and versatile living space.

On the ground floor, a spacious hallway leads to the living / dining room, which flows into a separate kitchen and utility room. At the rear, a lean-to connects the dining room to the kitchen and offers flexibility for a range of uses. The first floor features three comfortable double bedrooms, one enjoying double aspect light and the other two benefiting from built-in wardrobes. On the second floor, the premium principal suite offers double aspect windows, a three piece en suite and additional eaves storage.

Outside

Offered to the market in a popular location, and close to local shops, as well as being in catchment for fantastic local primary and secondary schools.

The property benefits from driveway parking, and side access to a spacious rear garden, which is mostly laid to lawn, but also offers mature shrubs and a patio area, perfect for alfresco dining.
